

30th Space Wing The Inspector General Complaints Resolution and Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Programs

The primary charge of the Inspector General (IG) is to sustain a credible Air Force IG system by ensuring the existence of responsive complaint investigations, and fraud, waste and abuse (FWA) programs characterized by objectivity, integrity and impartiality. The IG ensures the concerns of all complainants, and the best interests of the Air Force are addressed through objective fact-finding.

The Inspector General Complaints Resolution program is described in AFI 90-301. This instruction tells you how to submit a complaint, and who you should talk to. You may go to the Inspector General at any level, but experience has shown that complaints can best be solved by commanders and supervisors. For this reason, you are encouraged to discuss problems with your supervisor or your commander. No one may act against you just because you complained. If you think someone has acted against you just because you complained, tell an inspector or an IG.
