50th SW/IG Complaints Resolution Program/ Fraud, Waste & Abuse

Do you have a complaint?

1. The Air Force has a well-established complaint program. You can get help quickly and fairly when you need someone to answer a question. You can make your complaint at any level in the Inspector General (IG) system. No one may act against you just because you filed a complaint. If you think an adverse action has occurred based on a complaint you filed, contact the IG or tell a member of the IG staff.

2. The IG complaint resolution program is described in AFI 90-301; Inspector General Complaints Resolution and includes Fraud, Waste & Abuse. This instruction outlines the various methods of how to submit a complaint. You may go to an inspector or IG at any level, but experience has shown commanders and supervisors are the people best equipped to resolve complaints. Therefore, you are encouraged, but not required, to discuss your problem with your supervisor or your commander before coming to the IG.
