INSPECTOR GENERAL (IG) COMPLAINT PROGRAM

The Air Force has an autonomous, well-established complaint program, independent of the chain of command, to solve problems quickly and fairly. You can make your complaint at any IG level without fear of reprisal at any time. Before contacting the IG, you should try to resolve problems at the lowest level possible within your chain of command. So, if you have a complaint:

1. Talk to your supervisor
2. Talk to your First Sergeant
3. Talk to your Squadron Commander
4. Talk to any other member of your Chain of Command

If the problem isn't solved:

4. Then talk to me, your Inspector General
 - Complaints will be dealt with independently, fairly, and confidentially.
 - Your identity will be protected.

Threatening or taking unfavorable personnel action or withholding a favorable personnel action for talking to the IG is strictly prohibited.

You can reach us at 552-9444
