

DID YOU ASK?

A person cannot consent to sexual relations if he or she is asleep, incapacitated or underage. You can't coerce consent. Know the law and ask yourself...

Do I really have consent? What does the law say?

What would my partner say?

For more information about sexual assault and consent, please call our confidential hotline at 580-649-0656

