AU/IGQ

Background:

The AF Inspector General Complaint Resolution Program is described in AFI 90-301. The instruction tells you how to make a complaint and to whom you should talk. You may go to the IG at any level, but experience has shown that commanders and supervisors can best solve most complaints. For this reason, although not required, you are encouraged to discuss your problem with your supervisor or your commander, if possible, before coming to the IG.

The Air University Inspector General services all personnel assigned under HQ Air University; Spaatz Center, LeMay Center, Holm Center, Barnes Center, Ira C. Eaker Center, Air Force Research Institute (AFRI), Air Force Institute of Technology (AFIT), and Headquarters Directorates. The Installation IG, 42 ABW/IG, is under the appointing authority of Air Base Wing Commander.

Program Policy:

The Air Force IG Complaint Program is a leadership tool that:

- Indicates where command involvement is needed to correct systemic, programmatic, or procedural weaknesses and ensures resources are used effectively and efficiently.
- Resolves problems affecting the Air Force Mission promptly and objectively.
- Creates an atmosphere of trust in which issues can be objectively and fully resolved without retaliation or the fear of reprisal.
- Assists commanders in instilling confidence in Air Force leadership.
