432<sup>d</sup> Wing Inspector General

Building 2

- Who may file: Airmen of all ranks, family members, civilian employees, retirees, and other civilians may file an Inspector General (IG) or fraud, waste, and abuse complaint free from retribution, retaliation or reprisal.
- Appropriate Complaints: You should attempt to resolve fraud, waste and abuse allegations and personal complaints through your chain of command, or within established grievance channels, before elevating them to the IG. However, you may go directly to the IG at any time.
- How to file: Complaints can be filed with the IG, a member of Congress or the DoD Hotline. Complaints should be filed on an AF IMT 102 within 1 Year of becoming aware of the alleged wrongdoing. Anonymous complaints are also accepted.
