TYPES OF REPORTING

01

RESTRICTED REPORT

- Enables military members and dependants (18+), and Air Force civilians who are victims to report allegations of sexual assault to specified personnel without initiating an investigation. Specified personnel include the SARC, a military healthcare provider, Chaplain, or an on-duty Victim Advocate.
- Provides confidential reporting.
- Allows access to medical care, counseling, a victim advocate, and a special victims' counsel but does not initiate the investigative process.
- Intended to give the victim additional time and increased control over the release and management of the victim's personal information.
- Empowers the victim to seek relevant information and support to make an informed decision about participating in the criminal process.
- Retired members are not eligible to make a restricted report, unless an Air Force civilian.

02

UNRESTRICTED REPORT

- Any report of a sexual assault made by a victim through normal reporting channels which includes the victim's chain of command, law enforcement, and the AFOSI or other criminal investigative service.
- No confidentiality.
- The SARC will be notified and assign a victim advocate to the individual.
- Allows access to medical care, counseling, a victim advocate, and a special victims' counsel.
- Details of the allegation will be provided only to those personnel who have a legitimate need to know.

03

INDEPENDENT REPORT

- Information about a sexual assault is disclosed to command from an independent or third-party source.
- An official investigation may be initiated based upon an independent report.
