

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Breaking Barriers/Building Bridges

Do you have a dispute, conflict, or misunderstanding with your supervisor, co-worker, or other colleague?

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) can help both civilian and military personnel resolve work related issues in a timely, private, and confidential manner in order to work more effectively and in a professional work environment. A neutral third party can help find common ground and reach an agreeable solution to resolve differences and/or misunderstandings.

To obtain the services of a mediator/facilitator or for more information, contact your respective JBSA ADR Office.
