Chapter 1

PALACE CHASE PROGRAM

1.1. Program Description and Requirements. The PALACE CHASE program is an early release program which allows active Air Force officers and enlisted members to request to transfer from active military service to an Air Reserve Component (ARC). ARC refers to the Air National Guard of the United States (ANGUS) and the United States Air Force Reserve (USAFR). Character of Discharge is Honorable. Discharge is for convenience of the government. The application process takes approximately 7 - 8 weeks after Headquarters Air Force Personnel Center (HQ AFPC) receives it.

1.1.1. The Air Force may waive the member's remaining active duty service commitment (ADSC) or term of enlistment (TOE) if the member:

1.1.1.1. Agrees to the terms of the PALACE CHASE Statement of Understanding/Contract and repays any unserved portion of bonuses, tuition assistance, or scholarships as required. Repayment does not reduce commitment to the ARC.

1.1.1.2. Accepts an extended Selected Reserve (ANGUS or USAFR) assignment or is assigned to the Participating Individual Ready Reserve (PIRR) Category E, 50 points a year, non-pay position, until a selected Reserve position becomes available.

1.1.1.3. Consents to recall to EAD if they fail to report to the ARC assignment, fail to satisfactorily participate in ARC training, or fail to satisfactorily perform in accordance with 10 U.S.C. 12301(d) for a period as long as the unfulfilled TOE or ADSC or 12 months (whichever is greater). Consents to a National Crime Information Check (NCIC) in accordance with (IAW) 5 U.S.C. 9109.

1.1.2. The Air Force suspends the PALACE CHASE program during full mobilizations of the ARC.

1.2. National Guard Bureau (NGB/DP) and Office of the Chief, Air Force Reserve (HQ USAF/RE):

1.2.1. Implement the PALACE CHASE program in the ANGUS and the USAFR.

1.2.2. Provide HQ AFPC/DPPRSR with a sufficient staff to manage the PALACE CHASE program.

1.2.3. Authorize HQ AFPC/DPPRSR, ANGUS, and USAFR personnel to approve or deny PALACE CHASE applications based on an evaluation of applicants' probable success in the ANGUS or USAFR unit program, the Individual Mobilization Augmentee (IMA) program, or the PIRR.

1.3. PALACE CHASE Applicant:

1.3.1. Requests an application from the Active Duty MPF Relocations Element.

1.3.2. Withdraws an active Career Job Reservation (CJR) before applying for PALACE CHASE.

1.3.3. Contacts an ARC recruiter to locate a tentative ARC position. A unit may not hold the position more than 45 days.

1.3.4. May reapply after 120 days from the date following a notification of denial for manning.

1.3.5. May reapply as soon as any erroneous disqualifying factors are corrected or removed from the application.

1.3.6. May request the withdrawal of an application by providing written justification with squadron commander's recommendation for enlisted members and wing commander's recommendation for officers.

1.3.6.1. Officers must also submit a completed AF Form 780, Officer Separation Actions, with block 4e checked.

1.3.6.2. May not reapply for PALACE CHASE for 1 year after an approved withdrawal from the program.

1.3.7. Officers must resign Regular commission prior to accepting an appointment as a Reserve officer.

1.3.8. Completes all required forms to include AF Form 2631, PALACE CHASE Statement of Understanding/Contract, and AF Form 1288, Application for Ready Reserve Assignment. Officers also complete AF Form 780. Enlisted also complete DD Form 4-1-2, Enlistment/Reenlistment Document Armed Forces of the United States, when required by paragraph 1.10.

1.3.8.1. In addition to the required forms in paragraph 1.3.8., non-rated officers who are applying for seminary, in target critical shortage Air Force Chaplain Service, must also provide written certification of acceptance into the post baccalaureate degree program leading to ordination in the approving body from one of the religious organizations that are authorized to endorse clergy to serve as military chaplains. That post-graduate degree program must be in the field of theological or related studies from an accredited educational institution listed in the current edition of the American Council on Education (ACE) Accredited Institutions of Post-secondary Education and relevant ACE supplements to that publication. The qualifying degree program will require no fewer than 72 semester hours (108 quarter hours) of graduate level work.

1.3.8.2. Early Release from Active Duty to Pursue Activities with Potential Recruiting or Public Affairs Benefit to the Department of the Air Force. Officers and enlisted Airmen may request early release to pursue other career opportunities. Such requests can be made for, but are not limited to, pursuing careers in professional sports, music contracts, or other professions in which there is a strong expectation of the Air Force receiving a recruiting or public affairs benefit. Airmen will be expected to use their talent primarily in the United States in a manner that generates significant favorable media coverage and will likely generate interest in service in the United States Air Force. Evaluation of requests will consider the needs of the Air Force, the quality of the professional performance to date, the strength of the public affairs or recruiting proposal, and potential positive recruiting or public affairs benefit to the Air Force. In addition, in making a recommendation or decision on an application, reviewing authorities should consider that Airmen released from active duty under this provision are in effect "ambassadors" of the Air Force and any determination should consider whether an Airman's records and service history, to include derogatory or disciplinary action, render him or her an inappropriate candidate.

1.3.8.2.1. The approval authority for this program is the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force, Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR). The Airman applying for release and assignment to the ARC will make the application by memorandum, endorsed by the wing or equivalent commander and sent through AFPC/DPSOS to SAF/MR for approval. Any level in the process may disapprove the application if it does not meet the defined requirements or if determined not to be in the best interest of the Air Force.

NOTE: For the purposes of this program, paragraph 1.4.3.2. does not apply.

1.3.8.2.2. The applicant's memorandum will:

1.3.8.2.2.1. Show a realistic, detailed and documented plan that describes how the Airman's unique talent will be a positive benefit to the Air Force and fulfill the strong expectation that recruiting or public affairs efforts will be enhanced.

1.3.8.2.2.2. Acknowledge that the Airman applying for release from active duty under paragraph 1.3.8.2. will be assigned to, and fulfill the requirements of serving in support of Air Force recruiting or public affairs in a Selected Reserve unit, and meet the normal retention requirements based on minimum participation standards per Title 10, USC Section 10147. Such service in the Selected Reserve will be for a period of not less than two times the length of the remaining ADSC. Note: For the purposes of this program, paragraph 1.4.3.1. does not apply.

1.3.8.2.2.3. Acknowledge that the Airman is subject to monetary recoupment of education assistance, special pay, bonus or similar benefit at a pro-rata share based on the period of unfulfilled active duty service commitment, and that such recoupment is in addition to the two for one selected reserve obligation required in paragraph 1.3.8.2.2.2. Airmen subject to recoupment (under the provisions of Title 10, U.S.C., Section 2005; Title 37, U.S.C., Section 303a(e), and AFI 36-3205, paragraph 1.1.1.) for receipt of advanced education assistance must reimburse the United States a pro-rata share of the cost of their advanced education assistance based on the period of unfilled active duty service.

1.3.8.2.2.4. Acknowledge that the Airman is subject to immediate, involuntary recall for any reason to complete the period of active duty from which early release was granted.

1.3.8.2.2.5. Agree that in the event the Airman is no longer under contract the Airman will either return to active duty to complete the remaining ADSC, or continue in the Selected Reserve for a period of not less than two times the length of the remaining ADSC.

1.3.8.2.3. In addition to the memorandum, requests for release from active duty under this program will include the following:

1.3.8.2.3.1. AF Form 2631, PALACE CHASE statement of Understanding/Contract (Attachment 8). Note: Item 1.k. of the AF Form 2631 is not applicable to applicants applying for early release under paragraph 1.3.8.2. and will be lined out before submission.

1.3.8.2.3.2. Legible contract or binding commitment with an organization guaranteeing the opportunity to pursue an activity with potential recruiting or public affairs benefits.

1.3.8.2.3.3. Name, Grade, and address/phone number of a responsible official of the ARC unit at which the applicant will arrange to perform recruiting and/or public affairs duties for the duration of the ARC assignment.

1.3.8.2.4. Airmen are encouraged to acquire private disability insurance.

1.3.8.2.5. Applicants will comply with this Instruction, paragraphs 1.3.3., 1.3.6., 1.3.6.1., 1.3.7. and 1.3.8. All other requirements of paragraph 1.3. are not applicable.

1.3.8.2.6. Applicants requesting release from active duty under the provisions of paragraph 1.3.8.2. will apply on-line. The on-line application with all required documentation will be routed through the applicant's squadron commander to the wing or equivalent commander before routing to HQ AFPC/DPSOS for eligibility check and further processing.

1.3.8.3. Airmen must meet all requirements in Table 1.1.

1.4. Active Duty Air Force MPF Personnel Relocation Element (DPMAR):

NAME (Last, First, Middle Initial)	GRADE	SSN
DOE, MARK J.	SSGT	000-00-0000
1. I have been counseled regarding my plans to transfer from active duty in the United States Air Force to a position in the Selected Reserve of the Air Force under the provisions of the PALACE CHASE Program. I understand that:		MEMBER'S INITIAL
a. The ANG or USAFR unit will normally provide only 1 or 2 days employment per month. I have considered the need to support myself (and my family). I have considered the availability of employment in the area of my intended residence.		mjd
b. I am required to locate a category A or B ANG or USAFR position with assistance of a recruiter. If I do not locate a position, Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC) will return my application without further action. If I locate a position on my own, I will provide the Military Personnel Relocations Element with my unit designation, name and DSN number of my point of contact to be included in my application when forwarded to AFPC for coordination. My contact with ANG or USAFR personnel will only be to obtain position information. Formal blocking of a position will be accomplished through the recruiter or completed AF Form 1288.		mjd
c. AFPC will not normally approve placement of PALACE CHASE applicants into ANG, USAFR, or IMA positions more than 100 miles from intended residence. I realize that I must provide a definite city and state of intended residence on my PALACE CHASE application.		mjd
d. If my application is for a specific ANG or USAFR unit, or IMA position, and I will accept no other position, I must indicate this on my application. If I am approved for release and no preference of category A or B units or positions is indicated on my application, AFPC will attempt to place me in the ANG or USAFR unit or IMA position nearest my intended residence.		mjd
e. My final acceptance for PALACE CHASE is determined by coordination between AFPC and the gaining unit or ARPC. I will not enter into any binding agreements based on the assumption that I am separating from the active Air Force early and will not initiate any type of movement of personal effects until I receive special orders affecting my release from active duty.		mjd
f. If I am accepted into an ANG unit to fill an airman position, I will be required to reenlist in the Air National Guard of the United States. If I am accepted into the USAFR to fill an airman position, and my military service obligation will expire before termination of my PALACE CHASE contract, I will be required to reenlist in the USAFR for a period at least as long as the remainder of my PALACE CHASE contractual agreement. If I am accepted into the Participating Individual Ready Reserve (PIRR), I will be required to reenlist in the USAFR for the entire period of the PALACE CHASE contractual agreement. If I am an officer, I agree to accept a Reserve commission.		mjd
g. If I have been paid a bonus, I will be required to repay the unearned portion of the bonus prior to my separation from active duty. If I am an officer and have been paid tuition assistance, bonuses, or scholarships, I will repay any unearned portion prior to my separation from active duty. Repayment of any of above does not eliminate ADSC nor adjust PALACE CHASE contract date		mjd
h. Travel pay (mileage) and shipment of hold baggage or household goods will be determined by the distance to my home of record or place of last enlistment, whichever is farther. Period of last enlistment is defined as the last continuous period of active duty without a break in service. I have no travel pay entitlements to the gaining ANG or USAFR unit or IMA position unless it is located in the same geographical area as my home of record or place of last entitlement. The military status of my spouse, if applicable, will have no bearing on my travel entitlements. The reporting date at the gaining unit is determined by Joint Travel Regulation travel time plus 7 days. Travel time to the gaining unit is in a nonpay status.		mjd
i. I will not be allowed to withdraw my PALACE CHASE application if I have departed my active duty station on terminal leave, my date of separation has passed, or the Air Force has expended or obligated funds for my PALACE CHASE movement. If I decide to withdraw my PALACE CHASE application after it has been transmitted to AFPC, I will be required to submit full written justification to AFPC.		mjd
j. I will not be authorized leave, including terminal leave, after my PALACE CHASE separation is approved unless all separation processing has been completed. If I am required to complete a Reserve reenlistment immediately upon separation from active duty (see paragraph f above), I will not be authorized terminal leave unless my gaining USAFR unit or IMA position is collocated with my current active duty unit		mjd
k. My PALACE CHASE contract expiration date will be triple my remaining active duty service commitment (officers) or double my remaining term of enlistment (enlisted) for a minimum of 1 year and a maximum of 6 years.		mjd
l. My grade when reporting to the gaining ANG or USAFR unit or IMA position will not be higher than the grade I hold upon separation from active duty, regardless of the authorized grade of the position I am being assigned to. If I am being assigned to a higher grade position, promotion will be determined after reporting to the gaining unit or position based on ANG or USAFR promotion directives and internal policies of the gaining unit or ARPC. If I am required to accept a reduction in grade as a condition of assignment into the gaining unit or IMA position, I will be informed of it prior to my acceptance of the position.		mjd
AF FORM 2631 20000101 (EF-V3) PREVIOUS EDITION IS OBSOLETE.

m. During the PALACE CHASE contractual period after separation from active duty, I will not be released for enlistment or commissioning in a Non-Air Force component.		mjd
n. If I separate under PALACE CHASE and fail to report to and reenlist in the ANG or USAFR unit or IMA position, or fail to participate, or perform satisfactorily in reserve training, as required by statute, AFMAN 36-8001 and AFI 36-3205, I am a volunteer and I consent to be recalled to extended active duty for the time that remains on my active duty service commitment, term of enlistment upon separation from active duty, or for 12 months, whichever is greater. I may also be subject to administrative action for failure to comply with the provisions of the separation order. Furthermore, I consent to a national agency check (INCIC) IAW 5 U.S.C. 9109. I have read, understand and accept the terms and conditions set forth in AFI 36-3205.		mjd
o. If I am ordered to extended active duty for breach of my PALACE CHASE Selected Reserve Service contract, I am a volunteer and I consent to recall. I understand that my status will be as a Reservist on extended active duty and I will be ineligible to reenlist at the end of the recall period, except under the conditions outlined in AFI 36-2002.		mjd
p. I will not receive a new uniform issue from the ANG or USAFR; therefore, I must retain my uniforms from active duty.
q. I will keep my ANG or USAFR unit of attachment informed of my current home and business addresses and phone numbers. I must report a change of address and telephone number within 30 days by completing an AF Form 512, change of Address/Telephone (ANG/USAFR). I will fulfill all responsibilities commensurate with my grade. I further understand that failure to do so will be considered unsatisfactory performance and may result in my recall to extended active duty.		mjd
r. I understand that upon approval, this statement of understanding/contract will constitute the contract between myself and the United States Air Force, subject to coordination between AFPC and the gaining unit or ARPC (see e. above).		mjd
2. In consideration for the United States Air Force waiving my unfulfilled Term of Enlistment (TOE)/Active Duty Service Commitment Date (ADSCD), I, the undersigned, agree:
a. To assignment to the Participating Individual Ready Reserve (PIRR) if no category A or B position is available. I will be reassigned to a category A or B ANG or USAFR unit or IMA position, when available.		mjd
b. To reassignment to a category A to B Reserve position or Air National Guard position at any time prior to PALACE CHASE Contract expiration date, and that further concurrence from me is not required prior to reassignment.		mjd
c. That failure to accept reassignment to a category A or B position in an Air Force Specialty that I possess, within reasonable commuting distance from my residence and/or subsequent failure to participate satisfactorily in that position for the duration of this contract will be cause for my return to extended active duty.		mjd
d. As a member of the Ready Reserve, I will remain immediately available for Active Duty, Active Duty for Training and Inactive Duty for Training as required to fulfill the requirements of my duty position or as directed by proper authority.		mjd
e. That I will faithfully attend Active Duty for Training and Inactive Duty for Training periods and fulfill training requirements of 10 U.S.C. 270, 32, 502, and Air Force Manual 36-8001 (at least 48 Inactive Duty for Training drill periods and 15 days Active Duty for Training periods, 24 Inactive Duty for Training and 12 Active Duty for Training are required for category B IMAs, and at least 48 Inactive Duty for Training drill periods and 12 days Active Duty for Training are required for category A IMAs).		mjd
f. That if on flying status, I will perform such Flying Training periods in addition to Active Duty for Training and Inactive Duty for Training referenced in paragraph 2e above as proper authority may direct to ensure personnel maintain proficiency in aircraft assigned to the unit.		mjd
