SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This directive was reviewed in accordance with Secretary of the Air Force guidance and has been updated to a Department of the Air Force policy directive to be inclusive of the United States Space Force.

1. Overview. The Department of the Air Force must be able to identify Airmen and Guardians with the highest potential to fill positions of increased grade and responsibility. This directive establishes policies for promoting and demoting Airmen and Guardians to grades appropriate to their abilities and for meeting Department of the Air Force needs.

2. Policy. It is Department of the Air Force policy that:

2.1. The Department of the Air Force will appoint as military officers those qualified individuals, enlisted members, and officers who possess the skills necessary to meet the needs of the Department of the Air Force and clearly have demonstrated the potential for full military careers.

2.2. The Department of the Air Force promotion system will provide promotion opportunities to advance Airmen and Guardians with the appropriate experience and skills to fill projected requirements, consistent with federal law and Department of Defense policies and procedures.

2.3. Airmen and Guardians will be assessed for promotion based on their potential to serve in the next higher grade. Selections will be made using the fully qualified or best qualified concept, which values duty performance and potential based on that performance, but not to the exclusion of other factors. Airmen and Guardians who are not qualified for advancement to the next higher grade will not be promoted. When appropriate, and as permitted by law and consistent with Department of Defense policy, Airmen and Guardians will be demoted to a grade commensurate with their demonstrated abilities and skills.

2.4. The Department of the Air Force will implement an enlisted personnel management plan that develops professionally trained Airmen and Guardians to satisfy force structure authorizations consistent with Department of Defense guidance.

3. Responsibilities. This directive establishes the following responsibilities and authorities:

3.1. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR) provides policy oversight of and advocates for the Department of the Air Force's military promotion and demotion programs, and interfaces with the Office of the Secretary of Defense staff concerning development of Department of Defense promotion and demotion program policy and legislative initiatives.

3.2. The Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower, Personnel, and Services (AF/A1) develops, coordinates, and executes United States Air Force personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for managing appointments and promotion and demotion programs in collaboration with the Chief of Air Force Reserve and the Director of the Air National Guard.

3.3. The Deputy Chief of Space Operations for Personnel (SF/S1) develops, coordinates, and executes United States Space Force personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for managing appointments and promotion and demotion programs.

3.4. The Chief of Air Force Reserve (AF/RE) executes personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for appointments and promotion and demotion programs for Air Force Reserve personnel and oversees the Reserve force.

3.5. The Director, Air National Guard (NGB/CF) executes personnel policy and essential procedural guidance for the promotion and demotion programs for Air National Guard personnel and oversees the Air National Guard force.

3.6. The Vice Chief of Staff of the Air Force serves as the appellate authority for Airmen and the Vice Chief of Space Operations serves as the appellate authority for Guardians in cases which:

3.6.1. The commander of a major command, field command, field operating agency, or direct reporting unit demotes an Airman or Guardian from the grade of senior master sergeant or chief master sergeant.

3.6.2. The senior Air Force officer, senior Space Force officer, Air Force element or Space Force element commander for the headquarters staff of a unified command demotes an Airman or Guardian from the grade of a senior master sergeant or chief master sergeant.

3.6.3. The senior Air Force officer, senior Space Force officer, Air Force element or Space Force element commander of an activity outside the Department of the Air Force demotes an Airman or Guardian from the grade of senior master sergeant or chief master sergeant.

3.6.3.1. For Airmen; however, if the Commander, Air Force District of Washington, is higher in grade to the senior Department of the Air Force officer or element commander who approved said demotion, then the Commander, Air Force District of Washington, serves as the appellate authority.

3.6.3.2. For Guardians; however, if the Commander, Space Operations Command, is higher in grade to the senior Department of the Air Force officer or element commander who approved said demotion, the then Commander, Space Operations Command, serves as the appellate authority.

3.7. The commander of a major command, field command, field operating agency, or direct reporting unit demotes an Airman or Guardian.
