SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This publication has been substantially revised and should be completely reviewed. Major changes include establishment of a Department of the Air Force civilian awards program to recognize both Air Force and Space Force organizations and personnel by amending awards eligibility criteria, certificates, medals, responsibilities, and approval authorities. Several awards have been renamed, forms have been newly developed or renamed, procedural information for monetary and time-off incentive awards and DoD- and Presidential-level awards has been updated, and procedural information for use of referral bonuses for recruitment and hiring has been added. Changes also clarify references to Department of the Air Force, service specific references to United States Air Force and United States Space Force information, and other changes.

a. Instruction. This instruction is composed of several volumes, each containing its own purpose. The purpose of the overall instruction, in accordance with the authority in DoD Directive (DoDD) 5124.02 (Reference (a)), is to establish and implement policy, establish procedures, provide guidelines and model programs, delegate authority, and assign responsibilities regarding civilian personnel management within the DoD.

b. Volume. In accordance with the authority in DoDD 1400.25 (Reference (b)), this volume reissues subchapter 451 of this instruction (Reference (c)) and establishes DoD policy, assigns responsibilities, delegates authority, and establishes requirements, pursuant to the authority of parts 451 and 531 of Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (Reference (d)) and section 5336 and chapter 45 of Title 5, United States Code (U.S.C.) (Reference (e)), for DoD civilian employee awards and awards programs. It:

- (1) Establishes DoD-level awards for private citizens, groups, or organizations.
- (2) Provides guidance for:
 - (a) Awards for DoD civilian employees.
 - (b) Awards established by the DoD Components for private citizens and others.
 - (c) Awards to military personnel for disclosures, suggestions, inventions, and scientific achievements in accordance with section 1124 of Title 10, U.S.C. (Reference (f)).
- (3) Issues procedures to be observed by the DoD Components in recognizing or recommending civilian employees or others to the Secretary of Defense for Presidential-level awards established by Executive Orders 10717, 9586, and 11494 (References (g) through (i)).

(4) (Added)(DAF) Issues procedures for United States Air Force and United States Space Force Commanders to recognize or recommend civilian employees for other Department of the Air Force level awards.

(5) (Added)(DAF) The intent of the recognition program is to foster mission accomplishment by recognizing excellence of civilian employees and motivating them to high levels of performance and service.

2. APPLICABILITY. This volume:

a. Applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this volume as the “DoD Components”).

b. Does not apply to positions covered by the Defense Civilian Intelligence Personnel System. Those positions are covered in Volume 2008 of this instruction (Reference (j)).

c. (Added)(DAF) The Department of the Air Force supplementary material in this publication applies to commanders, managers, and supervisors of United States Air Force and United States Space Force civilian employees except where noted otherwise.

3. POLICY. It is DoD policy that:

a. DoD Components encourage the full participation of DoD personnel at all levels in improving government operations and, in accordance with References (b) through (i), to pay cash awards, grant time off, or incur necessary expenses for the honorary and informal recognition of DoD personnel, either individually or as a member of a group, on the basis of:

(1) A suggestion, invention, productivity gain, superior accomplishment, or other personal effort that contributes to the efficiency, economy, or other improvement of government operations or achieves a significant reduction in paperwork.

(2) A special act or service in the public interest in connection with or related to official employment.

(3) Performance as reflected in the employee’s most recent rating of record as defined by section 430.203 of Reference (d).

b. Awards must be granted consistent with Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Employment Program policies, laws, regulations and Executive Orders that prohibit unlawful discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, reprisal for protected activity, marital status, political affiliation or any other unlawful factor.

c. Awards programs for civilian employees involve employees or their representatives in program development and implementation, as appropriate. The method of involvement must be in accordance with applicable law.

d. Policies and standards governing awards for which both DoD civilian and military personnel are eligible must apply to both, consistent with applicable law and regulation.

e. Awards are subject to applicable tax rules.

f. Awards granted pursuant to this volume are given due weight in qualifying and selecting an employee for promotion as required by section 3362 of Reference (e).

g. Awards may be established to recognize private citizens, groups, and organizations that significantly assist or support DoD functions, services, or operations performed as a public service. Such awards are separate from awards and awards programs created to recognize civilian employees, and must be established and administered consistent with the procedures in this volume.

h. Awards, awards programs, ceremonies, or receptions to acknowledge contributions by organizations or companies having a commercial or profit-making relationship with DoD must not be established. The specific condition by which the contribution of an entity that is also a DoD contractor may be acknowledged is outlined in the procedures in this volume.

i. Nominations for awards may be sponsored or endorsed only by a current DoD civilian employee or Service member.

j. Requests by non-DoD personnel to either nominate themselves or others or to endorse nominations for themselves or others for awards or decorations sponsored by the DoD, other federal agencies, or private organizations, may not be honored.

(1) (Added)(DAF) Individuals and entities in a profit-making or commercial relationship with the Department of the Air Force may receive an award only when the contribution is “substantially” beyond the terms of the contract and recognition is clearly in the public interest. (T-0). Reference paragraph 11.b. of this enclosure for additional information.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Do not create an award to recognize contractor efforts. Additionally, contractors are ineligible to participate in Department of the Air Force awards programs, including team awards, created for Department of the Air Force civilian personnel. (T-0).

(b) (Added)(DAF) A certificate of appreciation and/or a letter of appreciation may be awarded to a contractor only when a contribution is deemed to be unrelated to and completely outside any contractual relationship with the Department of Defense and the recognition is clearly in the public interest. Such Certificate of Appreciation or Letter of Appreciation should be signed at the lowest practical level of the organization. Reference paragraph 11.b. of this enclosure for additional information.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Private citizens and organizations not in a profit-making or commercial relationship with the Department of the Air Force will only be recognized with an award in Appendix 5. (T-0).

(3) (Added)(DAF) Special Government Employees.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Recognize uncompensated special government employees, to include Federal Advisory Committee members, with an award in Appendix 5 only. (T-0).

(b) (Added)(DAF) Special government employees, to include Intergovernmental Personnel Act program employees, in a profit making or commercial relationship with the Department of the Air Force will only be recognized with a certificate of appreciation and/or a letter of appreciation. (T-0).

2. ELIGIBILITY

a. General

(1) Civilian employees who meet the definition of “employee” in section 2105 of Reference (e) are eligible to receive awards in accordance with this volume.

(2) In accordance with section 1124 of Reference (f), members of the Military Services are eligible to be paid monetary awards only for disclosures, suggestions, inventions, and scientific achievements.

(3) Performance awards may be paid to Senior Executive Service employees only pursuant to section 534.405 of Reference (d) and not in accordance with this volume.

(4) Private citizens and organizations may be recognized for significant contributions to the DoD with non-monetary awards only.

(5) (Added)(DAF) Contact Resources Division (SAF/AAR) SAF.AARC.Workflow@us.af.mil, prior to submitting an award nomination for a political appointee, non-career civilian senior executive employee and a Schedule C Employee. (T-1).

(6) (Added)(DAF) Department of the Air Force civilian employees may receive monetary and honorary awards from other Federal agencies for contributions when the accomplishments are very significant. (T-2). Accomplishments warranting a monetary award must be beyond those covered during annual performance evaluation cycles.

(7) (Added)(DAF) Grant monetary and honorary awards when merited regardless of the employee’s grade, level of responsibility, or type of responsibility.

(8) (Added)(DAF) All levels of command will endorse and support the Department of the Air Force awards program. (T-1).

(a) (Added)(DAF) To help ensure this level of support, the following should be in place at all levels:

(1) (Added)(DAF) Appropriate and consistent use of the various types of awards.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Active interest and participation of all Department of the Air Force employees.

(3) (Added)(DAF) Full consideration of eligible Department of the Air Force employees for awards sponsored by external organizations.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Do not award an individual who has been determined to have committed substantiated instances of unlawful discrimination. (T-1).

(c) (Added)(DAF) No award for performance or achievement will be given to an individual who:

(1) (Added)(DAF) Is either under investigation or upon whom disciplinary or adverse action based on performance or conduct is pending. (T-1).

(2) (Added)(DAF) Was the subject of a disciplinary action during the timeframe covering the award. (T-1).

(d) (Added)(DAF) If an employee is under investigation, is pending disciplinary or adverse action based on performance or conduct, or was the subject of a disciplinary action during the timeframe covering the award and management is interested in awarding the individual, the installation commander (or equivalent civilian director), must determine the basis for the award is unrelated to the investigation, pending action, or the discipline and the award would not reflect unfavorably on the Department of the Air Force. (T-1).

(e) (Added)(DAF) If, subsequent to the presentation of a previously approved honorary award, management becomes aware of facts that would have resulted in disapproval of the award if the pertinent facts had been known at the time of approval (such as the individual was under investigation, disciplinary or adverse action based on performance or conduct was pending, the individual was the subject of a disciplinary action during the timeframe covering the award, or the individual committed substantiated instances of unlawful discrimination), the management official with approval authority may rescind the honorary award based on awareness of the pre-existing facts.

(9) (Added)(DAF) Awards to Employees from Other Department of the Air Force Organizations. Occasionally, a manager outside an employee's chain of command may wish to nominate an employee for an award. For example, when an employee has been assigned to a long-term detail outside his or her organization or when an employee has completed a special project or has given extraordinary service benefiting a serviced organization. Nominations will be coordinated with the employee's permanently assigned organization and/or chain of command, prior to submission for approval. (T-1).

b. Former Employees. In accordance with section 451.104 of Reference (d), awards for contributions made by an individual when employed by the DoD may be paid to a former employee or to the estate or legal heirs of a deceased employee. Awards to separated or deceased Service members for contributions made while the member was on active duty may be paid to the former member or to the member's estate or legal heirs.

c. Non-appropriated Fund Employees. Employees paid with non-appropriated funds are not eligible to receive monetary awards paid from appropriated funds, but may receive non-monetary awards in accordance with this volume.

d. Foreign National Employees

(1) A foreign national individual who meets the definition of “employee” in section 2105 of Reference (e) and is paid with U.S. funds (e.g., is a direct hire employee) is eligible to receive awards pursuant in accordance with this volume.

(2) A foreign national individual who is paid on a cost reimbursable basis by agreement with a foreign country (e.g., an indirect hire employee) is not eligible to receive monetary awards but may receive non-monetary awards in accordance with this volume.

e. (Added)(DAF) Monetary and honorary awards can be awarded posthumously. Write the justification in past tense.

3. AWARDS PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS. The administration of DoD Component awards programs provides for:

a. Reviewing award recommendations for which approval authority has not been delegated to officials at lower levels within the organization.

b. Communicating the relevant parts of awards programs to personnel.

c. Evaluating and assessing awards and awards programs to ensure that awards:

(1) Are used to motivate, recognize, and reward eligible personnel.

(2) Exhibit a close, demonstrable link to performance, accomplishment, or contribution to DoD Component goals and objectives.

(3) Are granted commensurate with the value of the employee’s contribution or accomplishment.

d. Documenting all cash and time-off awards in compliance with section 451.106(e) of Reference (d). This task includes:

(1) Filing awards documents in compliance with the requirements of section 451.106(f) of Reference (d).

(2) Reporting awards data to the Central Personnel Data File (CPDF) in compliance with section 451.106(g) of Reference (d).

(3) Reporting awards data as required by OPM on an as needed basis.

(4) Following appropriate DoD financial management regulations on civilian pay policies in accordance with Volume 8 of DoD 7000.14-R (Reference (m)).

e. Granting quality step increases consistent with the provisions of subpart E of part 531 of Reference (d) and section 6 of this enclosure.

f. Documenting justification for awards that are not based on a rating of record in accordance with section 451.103 of Reference (d).

g. (Added)(DAF) Who Can Nominate. Nominations for awards may be sponsored or endorsed only by a current Department of Defense civilian employee or U.S. military member.

h. (Added)(DAF) Certificates in Braille. All Department of the Air Force award certificates for blind or visually impaired award recipients must have Braille overlaid lettering as well as standard print. (T-0). Use local purchase authority to obtain these certificates.

i. (Added)(DAF) Presenting Awards. Awards should be presented in a suitable ceremony. When an employee receives recognition outside the Department of the Air Force, the employee's owning organization will make all the presentation arrangements with the awarding party, to include protocol requirements. (T-3). In addition, all levels of command should ensure all significant civilian achievements and/or contributions are recognized and publicized in the installation media as well as the local community, as appropriate. Headquarters and MAJCOM/FLDCOM level awards may be used as justification to travel an employee to a central location for receipt of their award in a presentation ceremony per Joint Travel Regulations section 0309. However, acting as the presenting officer is not justification to travel to a presentation ceremony if local GO/SES personnel are available to preside at the presentation ceremony. (T-1).

j. (Added)(DAF) Replacing Certificates. A person, or the representative of a person, may have their lost or destroyed certificates replaced by the approval authority only if the requestor certifies, in writing, that the certificate was lost or destroyed. When replacing a certificate, enter the words "replacement certificate" in the bottom right corner of the certificate.

k. (Added)(DAF) Ordering Medals. Requisition medals for honorary awards, campaign and service awards, public service awards, ribbons, lapel pins, and devices through appropriate supply channels. (T-2). Do not locally procure the items, unless so specified in this DAFI. (T-2). The Department of Defense does not issue items on behalf of foreign governments; they may be available commercially at the individual's expense. (T-0).

l. (Added)(DAF) Replacing Medals. A person, or the representative of a person, may receive a one-time replacement medal, without charge, if the previously issued medal or other device issued is lost, destroyed, or rendered unfit for use, without fault or neglect on the part of the recipient or their representative. Requester should submit to the servicing civilian personnel section, MAJCOM/FLDCOM, Direct Reporting Unit or Field Operating Agency to validate records prior to replacement of medal or device. All other replacement medals will be provided at cost. (T-2).

m. (Added)(DAF) Engraving Medals. Do not engrave honorary awards for living recipients. (T-1). For posthumous awards, engrave honorary awards and the Secretary of Defense Medal for the Defense of Freedom only. (T-1). Engrave, in capital letters the awardee's first name, middle initial, last name. The name may be split if necessary.

(1) (Added)(DAF) If first name, middle initial, and last name cannot fit on the medal, use initial of first name, middle initial, and last name only (example: F. J. HORST).

(2) (Added)(DAF) Use standard font block letters.

n. (Added)(DAF) Duplicate Recognition.

(1) (Added)(DAF) The receipt of multiple federal awards for the same act, achievement or period of service is prohibited, subject to exceptions listed in section n. (T-1).

(a) (Added)(DAF) Only one honorary award may be given for a single act, achievement, or period of service. (T-1). Honorary awards may be granted independently or in combination with a monetary or time-off award (subject to established limits for specific honorary awards) providing the criteria for each award are met and the overall combined value of the awards does not exceed the value to the organization of the contribution recognized. (T-1).

(b) (Added)(DAF) The awarding of an honorary award does not preclude the recognition of the same act, achievement, or period of service during the performance appraisal process (and any accompanying monetary award or time-off award). (T-1).

(c) (Added)(DAF) An honorary award may not be given to recognize an act or achievement for which military recognition was previously given. (T-1).

(d) (Added)(DAF) Monetary (Special Act or Service Award and Notable Achievement Award) and time-off awards may not be given for the same act or achievement used to justify a previously recognized monetary award, time-off award, or performance-based award (monetary award /time-off award) granted during the performance appraisal process for the same accomplishments. (T-1).

(2) (Added)(DAF) In limited situations an employee may be eligible for multiple federal awards for the same act, achievement, or service. Example situations are:

(a) (Added)(DAF) Awards given at time of retirement, which recognize long-term service, can include achievements used in previous awards.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards are authorized in conjunction with rating-based performance awards. Refer to DoDI1400.25V431_DAFI 36-1002, Performance Management and Appraisal Program Administration in the Department of the Air Force. The time-off award and rating-based performance award will use the same supporting documentation.

o. (Added)(DAF) Awards Arising from Combat Operations and International Incidents. During periods of combat operations or international incidents, honorary awards authority will be automatically aligned with any military decoration authority the Secretary of the Air Force delegates.

4. MONETARY AWARDS

a. General. In accordance with section 4502 of Reference (e):

(1) A monetary award is in addition to the regular pay of the recipient.

(2) Acceptance of a monetary award constitutes an agreement that the use by the government of an idea, method, or device for which an award is given does not form the basis of a further claim of any nature against the government by the employee or by his or her legal heirs or assigns.

(3) A monetary award to, and the expense for the honorary recognition of, an employee may be paid from the fund or appropriation available to the activity or activities primarily benefiting from the employee's contribution.

(4) (Added)(DAF) The Department of the Air Force considers approved monetary awards to be valid obligations of the government that must be paid, subject only to availability of funds and meeting legal regulatory requirements.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Organization(s) and unit(s) should budget a percentage of its annual civilian pay budget for funding awards.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Monetary awards do not substitute for regular pay or performance awards.

(c) (Added)(DAF) Unit resource advisors/managers must validate funds are available for awards paid outside of the annual performance evaluation cycle.

(d) (Added)(DAF) Monetary awards granted during the previous performance evaluation cycle cannot be used to support an annual performance award in the upcoming performance evaluation cycle.

(e) (Added)(DAF) Monetary awards may be subject to budgetary guidelines determined by the Office of Management Budget. Guidance on budget limitations can be obtained from the local civilian personnel office, MAJCOM/FLDCOM/A1/S1, and/or FM.

(5) (Added)(DAF) In rare circumstances, career civilian senior executive employees may be eligible for monetary awards. The accomplishments must be specific and noteworthy; they cannot be duplicative of accomplishments captured in previous or future performance appraisals.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Requests for monetary awards will be submitted to Human Capital Management Division (SAF/AARC) via the Task Management Tool. (T-1).

(b) (Added)(DAF) Refer to AFI 36-901, Civilian Senior Executive Management, for additional guidance.

(6) (Added)(DAF) Monetary awards may be awarded to recognize scientific or technological achievements and inventions.

(7) (Added)(DAF) Political appointees are not eligible for monetary or time-off awards. (T-0).

b. Awards to Other Agency or DoD Component Personnel. For awards approved for employees of other federal agencies or other DoD Components, the DoD Component that benefit makes arrangements to transfer funds to the individual's employing DoD Component or federal agency. If the administrative costs of transferring funds would exceed the amount of the award, the DoD Component employing the individual absorbs the costs and pays the award.

c. Calculation of Savings. Tangible savings are to be calculated on the basis of estimated net savings for the first full year of operation.

(1) Exceptions may be made when an improvement with a high installation cost will yield measurable savings continuing more than 1 year. In this instance, the award may be based on the average annual net savings over a period of several years.

(2) The years may not exceed the reasonable life of the initial installation or the clearly predictable period of use, whichever is shorter.

d. Awards to Service Members

(1) Pursuant to Reference (f), the total amount of the monetary award made for a suggestion, invention, or scientific achievement may not exceed $25,000 regardless of the number of persons who may be entitled to share therein.

(2) Pursuant to section 451.104 of Reference (d), funds will be transferred to the DoD Component having jurisdiction over the member.

e. Examples of Awards Scales. Appendixes 1 and 2 of this enclosure provide models of awards scales based upon tangible and intangible benefits.

f. (Added)(DAF) Preparing a Recommendation. Recommendations for monetary awards should contain the following documents.

(1) (Added)(DAF) DAF Form 3670, Monetary or Time-Off Incentive Award Nomination and Approval, should be used to capture the required information, the award justification, and the appropriate approvals. The justification should be completed in bullet format and should not exceed one single-spaced typewritten page, unless otherwise required by this instruction.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Citation. Should address the local, command, service, or Department of the Air Force-wide impact of the accomplishments. Language for the citation should not contain superfluous embellishments, acronyms, or quotations. It should be written in readable, conversational language. The citation is only required if the employee will be presented with a DAF Form 2860, Special Act or Service Award, or DAF Form 3032, Certificate of Achievement, as appropriate.

g. (Added)(DAF) Distribution of Approved Awards. Forward approved awards to the employee's servicing personnel office for entry into the personnel data system. File a copy in the Supervisor-Employee Work Folder if desired.

h. (Added)(DAF) Special Act or Service Award. The Special Act or Service Award is a monetary form of recognition a civilian employee is granted for a contribution or accomplishment in the public interest that is a non-recurring contribution either in or outside of job responsibilities, a scientific achievement or in recognition of a courageous handling of an emergency situation.

(1) (Added)(DAF) The act, achievement or service must result in either tangible savings to the government (i.e., measured in terms of dollars) or intangible savings to the government (i.e., cannot be measured in terms of dollars) or both.

(2) (Added)(DAF) A Special Act or Service Award recognizes contributions for a non-recurring special achievement that is not otherwise recognized with a previous or future rating-based performance award.

(3) (Added)(DAF) The act or service to be recognized must not have served in whole or in part as the basis for a previous monetary award or time-off award.

(4) (Added)(DAF) The amount awarded for a Special Act or Service Award may range from $501 up to $25,000 depending on the achievement being recognized. The amount awarded for a Special Act or Service Award should be based upon the tangible and intangible benefits to the government.

(5) (Added)(DAF) Process. An employee's supervisor or any individual having direct knowledge of the act, service, scientific or other achievement, in coordination with the employee's supervisor, may initiate an award nomination. The nomination should be submitted within 60 calendar days of the act, achievement or service being recognized. The award may be accompanied by DAF Form 2860, Special Act or Service Award; available through Department of the Air Force e-Publishing (<http://www.e-publishing.af.mil>).

(a) (Added)(DAF) A Special Act or Service Award must be funded by the unit making the nomination. Approval is required by the Resource Manager to ensure funds are available and the unit must identify the fund cite to be used on the DAF Form 3670.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Recommendations for a Special Act or Service Award from $501 up to $10,000 must contain the specific fund cite that will be used and unit resource advisors or managers must certify that funds are available from that source.

(c) (Added)(DAF) The fund cite for a Special Act or Service Award recommendations from $10,001 up to $25,000 will be provided by SAF/AA, prior to Secretary of the Air Force decision.

(6) (Added)(DAF) Approval Authority.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Awards from $501 up to $10,000. SAF/AA and AF/DS; MAJCOM/FLDCOM commander, deputy commander, or director; field operating agency (FOA) and direct reporting unit (DRU) commander, deputy commander (or equivalent civilian director); and Installation commander or equivalent civilian director. The listed award approval authorities may delegate (in writing) the authority to approve Special Act or Service Awards in any amount from $501 up to $10,000 (all or a portion of their allowable authority). This may not be further delegated. Award approval authorities should delegate approval authority to the lowest practicable level to expedite processing. Generally, the approving official must be at a level higher than the individual who recommended the award.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Awards from $10,001 up to $25,000. Secretary of the Air Force.

(c) (Added)(DAF) Awards over $25,000. The President of the United States.

i. (Added)(DAF) Notable Achievement Award. A notable achievement award recognizes a civilian employee for a notable achievement meriting quick recognition and is a lesser award than a Special Act or Service Award.

(1) (Added)(DAF) The notable achievement award may not be granted to an individual who has received a previous monetary award or time-off award for the same act or achievement.

(2) (Added)(DAF) The amount awarded may range from $25 to $500 and may be approved by the employee's second-level supervisor.

(3) (Added)(DAF) Notable achievement awards are funded by the unit making the nomination. Approval is required by the Resource Manager to ensure funds are available and the unit must identify the fund cite to be used on the DAF Form 3670.

(4) (Added)(DAF) Nominations should be submitted within 30 calendar days of the act, achievement, or service. The award may be accompanied by a DAF Form 3032, Certificate of Achievement; available through Department of the Air Force e-Publishing (<http://www.e-publishing.af.mil>).

5. PERFORMANCE-BASED CASH AWARDS. In accordance with section 4505a of Reference (e):

a. Monetary awards may be granted to an employee whose most recent rating was at Level 3 (fully successful level or equivalent) or higher as defined in section 430.208 of Reference (d).

b. An award granted pursuant to this section may not exceed 10 percent of the employee's annual rate of basic pay, unless the DoD Component head determines that the employee's exceptional performance merits it. In that case, the Component head may authorize an award up to 20 percent of the employee's annual rate of basic pay.

c. Employees may not appeal a decision that denies an award or the amount of the award paid pursuant to this section. This does not eliminate or lessen any right or remedy in subchapter II of chapter 12 of Reference (e), chapter 71 of Reference (e), or any of the laws referred to in section 2302 of Reference (e).

d. Awards granted pursuant to this section will be paid as a lump sum and may not be considered as part of an employee's basic pay.

6. QUALITY STEP INCREASES

a. A quality step increase may be granted consistent with section 5336 of Reference (e) and subpart E of part 531 of Reference (d).

(1) A quality step increase is in addition to a periodic step increase in accordance with sections 5335 and 5336 of Reference (e) and subpart E of part 531 of Reference (d). It provides an incentive and recognition of high quality performance above that ordinarily found in the type of position concerned by granting faster than normal step increases.

(2) An employee is eligible for only one quality step increase within any 52-week period.

b. In accordance with section 531.504 of Reference (d), an employee covered by a performance appraisal program established in accordance with subpart B of part 430 of Reference (d) must receive a rating of record of Level 5 (“Outstanding” or equivalent) as defined in section 430.208 of Reference (d) in order to be eligible for a quality step increase.

(1) An employee covered by a performance appraisal program that does not use a Level 5 summary level must receive a rating of record at the highest summary level under the program. He or she must demonstrate sustained performance of high quality significantly above that expected at the Level 3 (“Fully Successful” or equivalent) level in the type of position concerned, as determined by Component-established performance-related criteria.

(2) Performance-related criteria are expressed in terms of specific levels of performance to clearly distinguish the employee’s performance as exceptional. These criteria will be published by the DoD Component.

(3) As quality step increases become part of base pay, the grant of a quality step increase should be based on performance that is characteristic of the employee’s overall high quality performance and the expectation that this high quality performance will continue in the future.

c. Quality step increases are reported to the CPDF consistent with section 531.507(c) of Reference (d).

d. (Added)(DAF) Refer to DoDI 1400.25V431_DAFI36-1002.

7. SUGGESTION AWARDS

a. General

(1) To be considered for an award, a suggestion must:

(a) Identify an improvement in the quality of operations, a cost reduction opportunity, or an improvement in the timeliness of service delivery that results in tangible or intangible benefits to the U.S. Government.

(b) Be adopted in whole or in part for implementation. The suggestion should set forth a specific proposed course of action to achieve the improvement or cost reduction and documentation as to how the cost reduction or savings is achieved.

(2) Ideas or suggestions that point out the need for routine maintenance work, recommend enforcement of an existing rule, propose changes in housekeeping practices, call attention to errors or alleged violations of regulations, or result in intangible benefits of good will are not eligible for consideration.

(3) DoD personnel who make suggestions concerning improvement of materials or services purchased from a contractor may be paid a monetary award only if the improvement results in tangible or intangible benefits to the government. The suggestion must be processed through government channels to identify correctly the origin of the proposal and the benefits to the government. Government employees or Service members will not be paid awards based upon benefits that accrue to a contractor.

(4) (Added)(DAF) Refer to AFI 38-402, Airmen Powered By Innovation And Suggestion Program, provides guidance and outlines procedures for submitting, evaluating and implementing ideas, providing feedback for ideas and details on the awards process for submissions.

b. Award Amounts and Financing

(1) Awards for suggestions are based upon tangible or intangible benefits or a combination thereof.

(2) When a suggestion is adopted by another organization, the benefiting organization will share in the cost of the total award commensurate with the benefit. The suggester's organization will notify the benefiting organization(s) of the amount due and the benefiting organization(s) will take prompt action to transfer the funds.

8. INVENTIONS

a. General

(1) DoD Component offices responsible for patent matters will determine that the invention is of value or potential value to the DoD and that the invention was made under circumstances that resulted in the government initiating action to obtain the title or license.

(2) To be considered for an award, the DoD Component office for patent matters must verify to the appropriate awards office that conditions in paragraph 7a(1) of this enclosure have been met.

(3) If the conditions in paragraph 7a(1) of this enclosure are not met but the invention is determined to be of value to the DoD and the inventor consents to consideration for an award, the inventor will be required to sign a claim waiver agreement to be paid an award.

(4) (Added)(DAF) Refer to AFI 38-402, provides guidance and outlines procedures for submitting, evaluating, and implementing ideas, providing feedback for ideas and details on the awards process for submissions.

b. Award Payments

(1) Eligible personnel may be paid a nominal initial monetary award and an additional monetary award when the patent is issued.

(2) If an application for a patent is placed under a secrecy order, the individual will become eligible for the additional award when the U.S. Patent Office issues a Notice of Allowability instead of a patent.

c. Awards in accordance with this section are not authorized if a monetary award has been paid for the same contribution as a suggestion.

d. Royalty payments for inventions are not covered by the provisions of this volume. Therefore, royalty payments must not be paid under the incentive awards authority and will not be reported as awards to the CPDF.

9. HONORARY AWARDS

a. The DoD Components must not title a Component-established award or awards program “Department of Defense” or “Secretary of Defense,” either in whole or in part. These titles are reserved for DoD-level awards only.

b. Honorary awards to DoD personnel may be granted independently or in addition to a monetary or a time-off award.

c. Appendix 3 of this enclosure lists DoD-level honorary awards for which career civilian employees may be eligible. It also lists Presidential-level awards for which civilian employees, Service members, and private citizens may be eligible.

d. Appendix 4 of this enclosure lists DoD-level honorary awards in recognition of contributions to the Department’s national security mission, humanitarian, or peacekeeping efforts.

e. (Added)(DAF) Department of the Air Force honorary awards that may be awarded to civilian employees are also listed in Appendix 3.

10. TIME-OFF AWARDS

a. General

(1) Time-off awards are an alternate means of recognizing the superior accomplishments of employees.

(2) Decisions to grant time-off awards are based on the same criteria or circumstances as for any other incentive award.

(3) Time-off awards must not be granted to create the effect of a holiday or treated as administrative excusals or leave. For example, they will not be granted in conjunction with a military “down” or “training” day or the like, which would grant the entire civilian employee population or a majority of the civilian population a time-off award to be used on a specified day.

(4) Though time-off awards may not have an immediate budget consequence, supervisors and managers will fully consider wage costs and productivity loss when granting time-off awards and ensure that the amount of time-off granted as an award is commensurate with the individual's contribution or accomplishment.

(5) The number of hours granted for a time-off award will be based upon the value of the individual's contribution or accomplishment and not tied to the hourly rate of the individual. DoD Components should develop a table similar to that of the intangible awards scales in order to better determine the value of a contribution and the corresponding number of hours appropriate to recognize the value (level) of contribution.

(6) (Added)(DAF) Table 3 is to be utilized by Department of the Air Force leaders, to include United States Space Force leaders, in determining the appropriate award level and amount for all time-off awards. (T-1).

(Added)(DAF) Table 3. Time-Off Awards – Scale of Award Amount.

Value/Level of Contribution to Organization	Number of Time Off Hours to Consider Awarding
Moderate	1 to 10
Substantial	11 to 20
High	21 to 30
Exceptional	31 to 40

(7) (Added)(DAF) Political appointees and intermittent employees are not eligible for time-off awards. (T-0).

(8) (Added)(DAF) The approval of group or organizational time-off awards is delegated to the lowest-level commander or leader that has collective oversight over the award nominees. Group or organizational awards must satisfy all the requisite criteria for individual time-off awards as outlined in 5 USC §4502, 5 CFR §451.104, and this publication. (T-0).

(9) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards will not be granted to provide a reconstitution period to returning deployed civilians or civilians deemed essential during a government shutdown or period of involuntary furloughs from which the employee was excepted. (T-1).

(10) (Added)(DAF) The supporting documentation for an approved time-off award cannot be used to justify another time-off award, Notable Achievement Award, or Special Act or Service Award. Exception: A time-off award granted in conjunction with a rating-based performance award will use the same supporting documentation.

(11) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards cannot be issued in conjunction with a quality step increase.

(12) (Added)(DAF) A time-off award may be granted to those employees whose individual contributions to a team effort caused the team to achieve superior accomplishments. It should be recognized that some members of a team might not have contributed substantially to the team's overall success. As such, a time-off award may only be offered to employees who contributed to the overall team accomplishment. Where recognition is based on the achievement of pre-established goals, measures, or other award formula, the goal, measure, or formula justifying recognition must itself clearly represent superior accomplishments. To grant time-off in this manner, the performance outcomes must be so significant that this type of award is clearly warranted and a benefit to the Department of the Air Force.

(13) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards are only authorized to recognize superior accomplishments of an employee that contributed to the quality, efficiency, or economy of government operations. The award grants time off from duty without loss of pay or charge to leave and provides an alternative to monetary or non-monetary recognition for superior accomplishments. A time-off award can be granted for performance as reflected in the employee's most recent rating of record and can be granted in lieu of, or in conjunction with, a rating-based performance award. Decisions to grant time-off awards should be made within 30 calendar days of the act, achievement, or service. The period of time-off granted will not be based on the individual's grade or salary.

(14) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards must not be used to recognize an employee working on a holiday committee, retirement luncheon, farewell party or any other similar ceremony or celebration. The granting of time-off awards for organizing, planning, and executing Wingman Day activities is not in accordance with the intent of this instruction. (T-0).

(15) (Added)(DAF) A time-off award may be granted to an employee who is assigned as the Combined Federal Campaign overall base program manager.

(16) (Added)(DAF) A time-off award cannot be issued to the individual Combined Federal Campaign monitor assigned within each organization.

b. Award Amount Limits

(1) The amount of time off granted to any one individual in any 1 leave year should not exceed 80 hours. For part-time employees or those with an uncommon tour of duty, total time off granted during any calendar year should not exceed the average number of hours the employee generally works during a 2-week period.

(2) The amount of a time-off award granted to an individual for a single contribution should not exceed 40 hours. For part-time employees or those with an uncommon tour of duty, the maximum award for any single contribution should not exceed one-half the average number of hours the employee generally works during a 2-week period.

(3) (Added)(DAF) Immediate supervisors may approve a time-off award up to one workday without review and approval of a higher official. An award more than one workday must be approved by a higher official (normally the employee's second-level supervisor).

c. Time Limit to Use Award. Time off granted as an award should be scheduled and used within 1 year after the effective date of the award. Provisions should be made to ensure that employees are given ample opportunity to take the time off awarded before the employee departs the organization. Further, provisions should be made to accommodate employees who are on long term training, are on extended sick leave, called to active duty, or similar situations so that the employee does not forfeit his or her time-off award.

(1) (Added)(DAF) Civilian employees forfeiting a time-off award due to activation for Guard or Reserve duty, for combat service, or due to deployment as a part of the expeditionary civilian workforce are entitled to reinstatement of their award. A reinstated time-off award must be used within 6 months of deactivation from active service or redeployment from combat service. (T-0).

(2) (Added)(DAF) Time-off awards must be carefully scheduled to avoid adversely affecting an employee who has an annual leave "use or lose" situation.

(3) (Added)(DAF) Awarded time-off cannot be used to justify restoring forfeited annual leave or to recognize voluntary donations of annual leave.

(4) (Added)(DAF) Once awarded, an employee cannot be required to use their time-off award on a date specified by a supervisor or higher official.

d. Conversion to Cash Award. In accordance with section 451.104 of Reference (d), a time-off award must not be converted to a cash payment under any circumstances.

e. Portability. A time-off award cannot be transferred between DoD Components or outside of the DoD. Managers and supervisors should make every effort to ensure that the employee is able to use the time-off award before he or she leaves the granting Component. DoD Components may establish procedures to accommodate the transfer of time-off awards within their respective Components.

f. (Added)(DAF) Preparing a Recommendation. Time-off awards must be fully supported with appropriate written justification.

(1) (Added)(DAF) DAF Form 3670, Monetary or Time-Off Incentive Award Nomination and Approval, should be used to capture the required information, the award justification, and the appropriate approvals.

(a) (Added)(DAF) Justification. The justification should be completed in bullet format and should not exceed one single-spaced typewritten page, unless otherwise required by this instruction.

(b) (Added)(DAF) Certification Statement. The certification statement applicable to time-off awards must be initialed on the DAF Form 3670. The certification statement reads, "I have considered fully the wage costs and productivity loss in granting this time-off award. The amount of time-off granted is commensurate with the individual's contribution or accomplishment. I also considered the unit's workload and unit employees' leave projections and certify that the employee can schedule the time-off in addition to other scheduled leave. I also considered other available forms of recognition in determining the amount of this time-off award."

(c) (Added)(DAF) Nominating and Approving Official Information. The nominating and approving official information should be included, as appropriate. Required information includes the nominating and approving officials' name, position title, signature and date signed.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Maintain the approved DAF Form 3670 in the Supervisor Employee Folder. File a copy in the Supervisor-Employee Work Folder if desired.

g. (Added)(DAF) Recording Scheduled Time-Off.

(1) (Added)(DAF) Record the employee's use of time-off in the approved automated timekeeping system (e.g., Automated Time Attendance and Production System).

(2) (Added)(DAF) Employees obtain supervisor approval and schedule the use of the time-off award in accordance with DoDI1400.25V630-AFI36-815, Leave. (T-1).

(3) (Added)(DAF) Supervisors and employees should confirm the time-off award is available prior to scheduling use by viewing the Standard Form 50, Notification of Personnel Action, in the Maybes+ module, the automated timekeeping system leave report, and/or the employee's Leave and Earnings Statement.

11. AWARDS FOR PRIVATE CITIZENS AND ORGANIZATIONS

a. General. Private citizens, groups, and organizations that significantly assist or support DoD functions, services, or operations may be recognized. Recognizing these groups demonstrates the interest of DoD management in improving efficiency and effectiveness and encourages citizens and organizations in their efforts to assist in accomplishing DoD missions. The awards are honorary only. Appendix 5 of this enclosure lists DoD-level awards for which non-career individuals or private citizens may be eligible. DoD Components may establish similar awards of public service to recognize contributions by the public to the Component's mission.

b. Eligibility

(1) Any person, group, or organization, except for those described in paragraph 11b(2) of this enclosure, may be considered for recognition in accordance with this section based on a significant contribution to the DoD performed as a public service.

(2) To avoid issues in connection with contractual relationships and obligations, actual or perceived conflicts of interest, and actual or perceived acts of favoritism, persons, organizations, or companies having a commercial or profit-making relationship with the DoD or with a DoD Component will not be granted recognition. The single exception is if the contribution is deemed to be unrelated to and completely outside any contractual relationship with DoD and the recognition is clearly in the public interest. Recognition is limited to a letter or a certificate of appreciation to the individual or to the organization signed at the lowest applicable level of the organization.

(3) DoD Components must not permit any persons, organizations, or companies having a commercial or profit-making relationship with the DoD to participate in DoD's civilian awards programs and must not create awards or awards programs to recognize such persons, organizations, or companies.

(4) (Added)(DAF) The prohibition on persons, organizations or companies having a commercial or profit-making relationship participating in DoD and Department of the Air Force awards programs applies to both individual and team awards.

(5) (Added)(DAF) Uncompensated Federal Advisory Committee Members. Outgoing Committee Chairs and Committee Vice-Chairs will be considered for the Secretary of the Air Force Distinguished Public Service Award. (T-1). Outgoing Sub-Committee Chairs and Sub-Committee Vice-Chairs will be awarded the Chief of Staff of the Air Force Award for Exceptional Public Service. (T-1). Outgoing Committee Members will be considered for the Commander's Public Service Award. (T-1). Payment of travel expenses is not considered compensation.

(6) (Added)(DAF) Uncompensated Special Government Employees will not receive awards designated for Title 5 federal civilian employees. (T-0). However, they may receive an award listed in Appendix 5.

c. (Added)(DAF) Sample Contributions. Exemplary service in an advisory or technical capacity to a Department of Defense committee, program or project; direct assistance to a Department of Defense component through actions or useful ideas that are beneficial in eliminating or minimizing problems or otherwise contributing to mission accomplishment; assistance through the cooperative use of facilities, equipment, or manpower; courageous or heroic actions in support of a Department of Defense activity or mission; or other actions resulting in significant benefits to Department of Defense.

d. (Added)(DAF) Preparing a Recommendation.

12. REFERRAL BONUS FOR RECRUITMENT AND HIRING

a. General. In accordance with chapter 45 of Reference (e) and part 451 of Reference (d), the DoD Component heads may establish programs for granting referral bonus awards to provide incentives or recognition to employees who bring new talent into the DoD Component by referring persons who are subsequently selected and successfully employed for hard-to-fill, mission-critical positions. Referral bonuses are granted, as with other awards, at the discretion of management and are not an entitlement.

b. Eligibility. All employees who are eligible for a monetary award in accordance with this volume are eligible for referral bonus awards, except for:

(1) Employees whose assigned duties include the recruitment of candidates for civilian positions.

(2) Selecting officials or other persons associated with the selection of a candidate.

(3) Any individual prohibited from advocating for the employment of the candidate by section 3110 of Reference (e).

c. Criteria. Each DoD Component determines whether the use of the referral bonus is appropriate and establishes criteria for the award. A referral bonus award may not be paid for the referral of a candidate who is already a DoD employee.

d. Award Payment. Award amounts and the length of time-off awards must be as specified in DoD Component guidance.

(1) In setting award amounts, DoD Components consider such factors as:

(a) The percentage of costs saved by avoiding certain recruiting expenses.

(b) The efforts put forth by the employee to recruit an individual.

(c) The difficulty of filling the position(s).

(d) Fiscal constraints.

(e) Other pertinent DoD Component regulations.

(f) Limitations established in this volume.

(2) Monetary referral bonus awards may be paid as a single lump sum or in incremental payments. The DoD Component sets the payment schedule (e.g., award paid at time of hire, after 6 months of satisfactory performance, or upon completion of a probationary period).

(3) DoD Components document the justification for referral bonus awards in accordance with section 451.103 of Reference (d).

e. (Added)(DAF) Air Force offers referral bonuses for recruitment. Referral bonuses are granted, as with other awards, at the discretion of management and are not an entitlement. Department of the Air Force policy for use of referral bonuses for recruitment and hiring is included in Appendix 7.

b. Eligibility for this medal is aligned as closely as practicable to that of the Armed Forces Service Medal for Service members. All other eligibility and qualifying requirements having been met, this medal may only be awarded to a civilian employee directly supporting a military operation that has been authorized the Armed Forces Service Medal for Service members.

c. DoD Components are responsible for establishing administrative procedures, purchasing medal stock, creating an accompanying certificate, approving the medal, and maintaining records.

d. Further information may be obtained from the DoD Component's awards policy office or awards regulation.

e. (Added)(DAF) General. The Deputy Secretary of Defense approved the establishment of the Armed Forces Civilian Service Medal on 22 August 1997. f. (Added)(DAF) Specific. Employees must be engaged in direct support for 30 consecutive days in eligibility (or for the full period when an operation is for less than 30 days in duration) in a military operation awarded the Armed Forces Service Medal or for 60 non-consecutive days in an Armed Forces Service Medal operation. This support requires the employee to enter the area(s) of eligibility.

(1) (Added)(DAF) Civilian employees who meet the definition of "employee" under Title 5 of the United States Code, Section 2105 (including employees of non-appropriated activities) and direct hire foreign nationals are eligible to receive the medal.

a. (Added)(DAF) A referral bonus award may not be paid for the referral of a candidate who is already a DoD employee. Referral bonus awards may only be paid for employment of newly appointed candidates (employee's first appointment with the Department of the Air Force).

b. (Added)(DAF) A referral bonus award may not be paid for referrals to temporary appointments of less than 1 year, including all student appointments.

c. (Added)(DAF) A referral bonus award may not be paid for any referral to intern/fellowship programs (e.g., Premier College Intern Program) except for positions covered under the Palace Acquire and Copper Cap programs.

d. (Added)(DAF) Referral bonus awards may not be paid for referrals to the DRIVE program in the course of transition assistance duties.

e. (Added)(DAF) Referral bonuses may not be split amongst employees and only one referral bonus will be paid per accession.

f. (Added)(DAF) Employees may receive more than one referral bonus award within a year (if all eligibility criteria are met for each accession for which a referral bonus award is granted).

(1) (Added)(DAF) There is no limit on the number of referral bonus awards that an employee may receive within a year; however, in accordance with 5 CFR 530.203, monetary awards are factored into the aggregate limitation on pay within a calendar year.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Time-off granted as a referral bonus award will count toward the established maximum time-off award limit of 80 hours granted to any one individual in any one leave year (or the average number of hours the employee generally works during a 2-week period for those with an uncommon tour of duty).

g. (Added)(DAF) Referral bonus awards should only be granted when a determination has been made that there exists a difficulty in recruiting for the position(s).

h. (Added)(DAF) All Department of the Air Force employees who are eligible for monetary awards in accordance with DoDI 1400.25, Volume 451, are eligible for referral bonus awards, except for:

(3) (Added)(DAF) Any individual prohibited from advocating for the employment of the candidate by section 3110 of Title 5, United States Code, Employment of Relatives; Restrictions.

2. (Added)(DAF) RESPONSIBILITIES. MAJCOMS/FLDCOMS will:

a. (Added)(DAF) Provide overall technical guidance implementing referral bonus award policy.

b. (Added)(DAF) Issue written guidance outlining eligibility in accordance with Department of the Air Force referral bonus award guidance.

c. (Added)(DAF) Identify and define the specific hard-to-fill positions for which referral bonus awards may be offered within their organization. Identified positions must already be included on the Department of the Air Force Fiscal Year 2021 Mission Critical Occupation List.

d. (Added)(DAF) Publicize the availability of referral bonus awards (when applicable).

e. (Added)(DAF) Ensure that referral bonus awards are granted in accordance with the requirements set forth in Department of the Air Force guidance and other applicable regulations.

f. (Added)(DAF) Monitor the utilization and effectiveness of the referral bonus award program.

g. (Added)(DAF) Provide reports as requested.

3. (Added)(DAF) PROCEDURES.

a. (Added)(DAF) To qualify for consideration, the occupational series of the positions for which referral bonus awards may be offered must be deemed by the Department of the Air Force as a Mission Critical Occupation. The fact that a position is considered a mission critical occupation in and of itself will not deem the position eligible for receipt of a referral bonus award.

b. (Added)(DAF) Prior to commencing use of referral bonus awards, each MAJCOM/FLDCOM must establish written policy guidance outlining eligibility in accordance with the Department of the Air Force Referral Bonus for Recruitment and Hiring policy contained herein. MAJCOM/FLDCOM guidance must include the following:

(1) (Added)(DAF) Designation/identification of the hard-to-fill, mission critical positions for which referral bonus awards may be offered. In addition to the occupational series of the position being deemed a mission critical occupation, positions for which a referral bonus award may be offered will be identified by the MAJCOM/FLDCOM based on how difficult they are to fill, which will vary by local market conditions. In deciding whether a position meets the hard-to-fill criteria, management officials should consider factors such as: candidate quality and availability, success/results of recent recruitment and retention initiatives, mission impact if the position remains vacant, salaries paid by competitors for like talent, turnover rates for similar positions, employment trends, labor-market factors, unique skills/competencies required for the position, desirability of the position and geographic location, and/or other supporting documentation that demonstrates recruitment challenges. A helpful resource may be the Direct Hiring Authority Matrix available on myFSS at: <https://myfss.us.af.mil/USAFCommunity/s/view-file?id=069t000000hNZ65AAG>.

(2) (Added)(DAF) Determine referral bonus award amounts (up to the amount authorized by the Department of the Air Force policy). MAJCOMS/FLDCOMS can set limits for referral bonus awards and time-off awards under this guidance. The maximum award amount for a referral bonus is $2,000, 24 hours time-off, or a combination of both. When setting award amounts MAJCOMS/FLDCOMS must consider:

- (a) (Added)(DAF) The percentage of costs saved by avoiding certain recruiting expenses.
- (b) (Added)(DAF) The efforts put forth by the employee to recruit an individual.
- (c) (Added)(DAF) The difficulty of filling the position(s).
- (d) (Added)(DAF) Fiscal constraints.
- (e) (Added)(DAF) Other pertinent DoD Component regulations.
- (f) (Added)(DAF) Limitations established by this guidance.

(3) (Added)(DAF) Establish strategy/process for publicizing availability of referral bonus awards. If applicable, vacancy announcements and registers should indicate that the position(s) being filled is one for which a referral bonus award may be paid.

(4) (Added)(DAF) Determine any MAJCOM/FLDCOM specific documentation requirements (in addition to those established herein).

(5) (Added)(DAF) Identify the management officials authorized to approve referral bonus awards. Designated approval authorities must be an authorized management official at least one level higher than the hiring manager who is filling the position.

4. (Added)(DAF) DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS. Each determination to pay a referral bonus or a time-off award must be documented and maintained by the authorized management official in accordance with the Air Force Records Disposition Schedule, which is located in the Air Force Records Information Management System.

a. (Added)(DAF) The written justification should be accomplished using AF Form 1768, Staff Summary Sheet, or an electronic Staff Summary Sheet, and will include:

(1) (Added)(DAF) Specific identifying information for the position being filled (Organization, Pay Plan-Series-Grade, Manpower Position Control Number, etc.) and a determination that the position is hard-to-fill, mission critical along with the supporting rationale.

(2) (Added)(DAF) The difficulty of filling the position(s) and prior unsuccessful efforts in recruiting for the position(s) (including availability in the labor market of highly qualified candidates and any special qualifications needed).

(3) (Added)(DAF) The difficulty of retaining employees in the position(s) and recent turnover.

(4) (Added)(DAF) An estimate of costs saved by eliminating certain recruitment expenses.

(5) (Added)(DAF) Specific identifying information for the employee receiving the referral bonus award (name, office symbol, Pay Plan-Series-Grade, title, etc.), a description of the efforts put forth by the employee to recruit the candidate, the name of the individual recruited and Entrance on Duty date.

(6) (Added)(DAF) Justification for the award amount based on the criteria specified under paragraph 3.b.(2) of this appendix.

(7) (Added)(DAF) Proper coordination and approval of the referral bonus award.

b. (Added)(DAF) DAF Form 3671, Referral Bonus Candidate Referral Certification, must be completed by the referring employee, the referred candidate, and the authorized management official. This completed form should be attached to the referral bonus award documentation/justification package.

5. (Added)(DAF) PAYMENT. Properly documented and approved referral bonuses will be paid in one lump sum at the time of hire of the referred candidate. The Request for Personnel Action should be submitted within two pay periods of the recruited employee's EOD date.

6. (Added)(DAF) FUNDING.

a. (Added)(DAF) Management officials must consult with unit resource advisors/managers to validate funds are available for the referral bonus award. Funding resources should be identified up front and set aside until they are paid out. Due to the processing timeframe for the referral bonus awards, funding may cross fiscal years.

b. (Added)(DAF) Referral bonus awards are not factored into the annual awards spending for appropriated fund and nonappropriated fund civilian awards and recognition. Per OMB Circular No. A-11, which provides guidance for the annual awards bogey, awards spending is defined as the sum of: (1) individual performance awards for non-Senior Executive Service (SES)/Senior Leader (SL)/Scientific and Professional (ST) employees (Nature of Action 840) and, (2) individual contribution awards (e.g., special act awards) for non-SES/SL/ST employees (Nature of Action 849). Referral bonus awards are not factored in as part of the awards spending as they are neither performance nor contribution awards.

7. (Added)(DAF) PROCESSING. Guidelines for processing referral bonus awards or time-off awards are available in the Office of Personnel Management's Guide to Processing Personnel Actions. Referral bonuses are processed as cash awards using the nature of action code 848.
