This Mission Directive implements guidance in AFI 38-101, Manpower and Organization. It delineates the mission, command relationships, and responsibilities of 14th Test Squadron. This Mission Directive applies to individuals assigned to HQ AFRC. It does not apply to Regular Air Force, Space Force, or ANG units. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with IAW AFI 33-322, Records Management and Information Governance Program, and disposed of IAW the Air Force Records Information Management System and Records Disposition Schedule. Contact supporting records managers as required. Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the OPR using DAF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route DAF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. Submit requests for waivers through the chain of command to the publication OPR for non-tiered compliance items. This publication may not be supplemented or further implemented or extended.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This publication has been substantially revised and needs to be completely reviewed. Major changes include adding the waiver authority statement and updates to the purpose, and references.

1. Mission. The 14th Test Squadron provides trained citizen airmen personnel as subject matter experts to partner with the 17th Test Evaluation Squadron, as a classic associate unit to prepare United States Space Force forces to prevail in a contested, degraded, and operationally limited environment through the independent test and evaluation of missile warning, missile defense, and space domain awareness technologies.

2. Command. The 14th Test Squadron Commander:

- 2.1. Reports to the 926th Operations Group Commander.
- 2.2. Exercises administrative control over assigned personnel.

3. Responsibilities.

- 3.1. Provides and ensures the training and readiness of assigned personnel.
- 3.2. Provides oversight and execution of the 14th Test Squadron mission.

JOHN P. HEALY, Lt Gen, USAF
Commander
